The 50 Essential Tracks To Download This Month

1 Just Like A Woman Bob Dylan

Blonde On Blonde is 40 this year and so good, obviously, that it's nigh on impossible to single out any one track. This rapidly became a standard, however.

Available On: www.apple.com/uk/itunes

2 When You Wasn't Famous The Streets

The nation's chav poet is back, with a true tale of a fling with a celebrity. "I never thought I'd see a pop star smoke crack," he says. The tabloid splash is surely days away.

Available On: The Hardest Way To Make An Easy Living (forthcoming 679 album)

3 Mr Ambulance Driver The Flaming Lips

Laid-back highlight from the Oklahoma freak rockers' new album, which is otherwise brimming with psychedelic mayhem.

Available On: At War With The Mystics (forthcoming Warner's album)

4 Set The Fire To The Third Bar Snow Patrol

The ubiquitous Wainwrights strike again. Sister Martha is on hand this time, lending her vocals to this hymn-like standout track on the Scots' forthcoming new album.

Available On: Eyes Open (forthcoming Fiction album)

5 On An Island David Gilmour

The Pink Floyd guitar hero serves up a slow-burner in the style of Shine On You Crazy Diamond, replete with blissed-out solos. Just don't call him Dave (see page 162).

Available On: On An Island (EMI album)

The Streets: the Miami Vice years.
