

Pink Floyd star on big screen

PINK Floyd fans have the chance to see a performance by the band's singer and guitarist David Gilmour screened at Exeter's Picturehouse cinema.

The premiere of the singer's new DVD, Remember That Night — Live at the Royal Albert Hall, will be broadcast live by satellite from London's Leicester Square tonight.

It features contributions from musicians including Richard Wright, Phil Manzanera, Guy Pratt, Dick Parry, Jon Carin and Steve DiStanislaio.

Special guests include David Crosby, Graham Nash and David Bowie. Gilmour will also perform a song live on electric guitar.

The screening will give the audience a chance to see the DVD before it goes on general release. The show starts at 7.30pm.
