

Highlights

The pick of the week's music programmes

Live Music Awards 2008

Saturday C4

Hotly tipped newcomers Glasvegas join band du jour the Ting Tings, Primal Scream, Estelle, Will Young and others for this year's awards, hosted by Juliette Lewis and Steve Jones.

Dermot O'Leary

Saturday Radio 2

The dreamy Mercury Rev play new material while Athlete return to the show that gave them their first live UK radio session.

Later Live . . . with

Jools Holland

Tue, Friday BBC2

The Mercury Prize-winning Elbow take to the stage alongside David Gilmour (see Friday), Natalie Cole, hip-hop artist Roots Manuva and Katy Perry.

Howlin' Wolf

Tuesday Radio 2

Another chance to hear the story of one of the most influential blues musicians of all time.

Bob Harris Country

Thursday Radio 2

Highlights of the 7th Americana Music

Association Awards from Nashville, with appearances from Joan Baez and others.

Jacqueline du Pré and the Elgar Cello Concerto

Friday BBC4

Christopher Nupen's film about the brilliant but tragic cellist begins a new series of his classical music portraits.

David Gilmour Night

Friday BBC4

This week, the Pink Floyd legend releases a live album recorded in Gdansk; here's a chance to see the gig along with two documentaries.

Gerry Kiernan

SCOTS TO THE CORE

This year's next big thing: Glasvegas

Dave Gilmour Night From 9.10pm BBC4 The Pink Floyd guitarist completed his 2006 tour with a dramatic performance in a historic Polish shipyard, with an orchestra. Live in Gdansk, the highlight of tonight's programmes, features Gilmour's solo work and four Floyd songs, including Comfortably Numb. GE

